 - SELECT - Press to select Game 1 (you against the dealer) or Game 2 (you and a friend against the dealer).
 - START/SOUND - Press to begin play. This button may also be pressed during the game to turn the sound off and on.

Following are brief descriptions of the buttons used to play the game. Details and examples will be given later in the instructions.

- BET/MAX BET - Press to bet a specified amount for each hand, or to bet the maximum amount for each hand (10 minimum to 50 maximum, in increments of 10).
- HIT - Press to deal two cards to you and two cards to the dealer at the beginning of each hand. Press again to deal yourself another card.
- STAND - Press when you do not want any more cards.
- DOUBLE DOWN - Press to double your bet after you get your first two cards.
- SPLIT - Press to "split your hand" if you are dealt two cards with the same number. This will give you a second hand of cards to play.
- INSURANCE - Press to buy insurance only if the computer dealer's face-up card is an Ace. Insurance gives you a chance to protect your winnings if the computer dealer gets Black Jack.

The origin of Black Jack is still debated, but it probably evolved in 16th century France. The French called the game "vingt-et-un" ("twenty-and-one"). By the mid-1800s, Americans were calling it "Black Jack." That's because a player who was dealt a Jack of Spades (worth 10) and an Ace of Spades (worth 11) as the first two cards won additional money for getting exactly 21. And, of course, Spades are black. However, black and red card suits have no role in this game. Only the card values (numbers 2-10, Ace, Jack, King and Queen) have relevance.

OBJECT OF THE GAME

In short - try to get as close to 21 as you can. That means building a hand that has a total value as close to 21 as possible without going over, but still has a higher total than the computer dealer. If the total value of your cards is closer to 21 than the computer dealer, you win as much as you bet.

Black Jack:

If the total of your first two cards is exactly 21, you get a Black Jack. When that happens, Black Jack appears on the screen. You win 3 to 2 on your bet, as long as the dealer does not also have Black Jack.

Note: Black Jack always beats a score of 21 that consists of three or more cards.

Bust:

If the total value of your cards exceeds 21, your hand loses (or "Busts.") When that happens, "BUSTS" appears on the screen. You lose your bet.

If the total value of the computer dealer's cards goes over 21, you win.

Push:

If both you and the computer dealer have Black Jack (or if both have the same total from 17 to 21), the game results in a "push." The word "PUSH" appears on the screen. This means that no one wins, but you receive your bet back.

- Card suits have no meaning in this game.
- Cards 2 through 10 are face value.
- Jacks, Queens and Kings have a value of 10.
- Aces have a value of 1 or 11. If you are dealt an Ace, you will see the two different total values for your hand flashing back and forth.

Example 1:

If you have an Ace and a 2, you will see the total value of your hand flashing between the number "3 and 13."

Example 2:

If you have a 6 and an Ace, you may consider your hand to be 17 or 7.

Do the following:

1. Press the ON button.
(Your game will shut off automatically after 3 minutes of non-use. Simply press any button to return to where you left off.)
2. Press the SELECT button to choose a game. Game 1 is one player (you against the computer dealer). Game 2 is two players (you and a friend against the computer dealer).
3. Press the START button to begin playing.

The directions below are for a one-player game, but they also apply to a two-player game. Simply watch the screen for prompts that indicate Player 1 and Player 2.

At the start of your turn, do the following:

1. Press BET/MAX BET to place your bet.
2. Press HIT to deal two cards to you and two cards to the computer dealer.
3. Press one or more of the following buttons, as explained later in the instructions: HIT, STAND, SPLIT, DOUBLE DOWN, INSURANCE.

Each of the above steps is explained in detail as follows:

1. Placing Your Bet

You start a game with 200 points. Before any cards are dealt, the screen will prompt you to "PLACE BET." The minimum bet is 10 points (per hand) and the maximum is 50 points.

- Press BET/MAX BET repeatedly to increase your bet from 10 to 50, in increments of 10. If you continue pressing the button, it returns to 10.
- Press and hold BET/MAX BET for one second to select a 50 point maximum bet.

As you place your bet, you will see your total point score go down. If you drop below zero points, you'll see a negative sign in front of your score.

2. Deal the First Two Cards

Press HIT to automatically deal two cards to you and two cards to the computer dealer. Your two cards will appear face up. Only one of the computer dealer's two cards will appear face up. The computer dealer's other card will remain face down until you (as well as the other player in a 2-player game) have completed your hand(s). A running total of your hand (as well as the computer dealer's face-up hand) will show on the screen.

Note: Occasionally, the computer dealer will win automatically if it gets Black Jack with the first two cards.

3. Press Additional Buttons

Press one or more of the following buttons as applicable:

HIT

If you are not satisfied with the total of the two cards you were dealt, press HIT to get another card.

STAND

If you are satisfied with the total of the two cards you were dealt (and don't want any more), press STAND.

Example: If you are dealt two cards with a total value of 20, your best option is to "stand."

After pressing STAND, control moves to the other player (in a two-player game), or to the computer dealer.

HARD HAND VS. SOFT HAND

A hand with an Ace valued at 11 is considered "soft."

Example: A hand with an Ace and a 6 is a "soft 17."

A hand with an Ace valued at 1 is considered "hard."

Example: A hand with an Ace, 6 and a King is a "hard 17."

The computer dealer must always press HIT again to draw a new card if it holds a "soft 17." It's your choice whether or not to press HIT again if you have a "soft 17."

SPLIT

If you are dealt two cards with the same number (ignore the suit), you will see the word "SPLIT" flashing on the screen ("SPLIT 1" for asking player 1; "SPLIT 2" for asking player 2). You may want to consider "splitting your hand" into two separate hands, and play them independently.

- If you decide not to split your hand, simply press HIT or STAND as usual.

Example: If you are dealt two 10's, your best choice is NOT to split, but to STAND.

- If you decide to split your hand, press SPLIT. A matching bet amount will be applied to your second hand. That amount will be deducted automatically from your total point score. The screen will then direct you to complete one hand at a time.

SPLITTING ACES

If you decide to split two Aces and get a card with a value of 10 with either split hand, the hand is not considered a Black Jack, but is treated as normal 21. Therefore, you do not collect 3 to 2 on your bet.

DOUBLE DOWN

After getting your first two cards, you may double your bet by pressing DOUBLE DOWN. Once you do so, however, you may only HIT for one additional card.

Example 1: If you are holding a 6 and a 5 (total of 11) against the dealer's face-up 5, you have a good chance of winning the hand by drawing one additional card. Therefore, you decide to double your bet.

Example 2: If you placed a maximum bet of 50, and then bet "double down," you would be betting 100 points on one hand.

You may also "double down" on your bet after splitting your hand. After the computer dealer adds a card to your first new hand, and adds a card to your second new hand, press DOUBLE DOWN. The computer dealer will then add a card to your first hand, and you may begin making play decisions on it.

INSURANCE

If the computer dealer's face-up card is an Ace, it has a fair chance of getting Black Jack. If you think that the computer dealer has Black Jack, you can purchase insurance against the dealer's Black Jack. When this happens, "INSURANCE" flashes on the screen. To purchase insurance protection, press INSURANCE.

- If the dealer does have Black Jack, the insurance pays you 2 to 1 odds on your insurance bet.
- If the dealer does not have Black Jack, you lose half of your original bet. Your original bet is then settled as usual by comparing your cards with the computer dealer's cards. If you and the computer dealer both have Black Jack, the game results in a "push." As stated earlier, this means that no one wins, but you receive your bet back.

When you have completed building your hand, the computer dealer then turns over its other card, and continues to draw cards until its total is greater than 16. The computer dealer must also draw another card if it has a "soft 17." (See Hard Hand vs. Soft Hand section of the instructions.)

- If the total value of your cards is closer to 21 than the computer dealer, you win as much as you bet.
- If the total value of your first two cards is exactly 21 (and the computer dealer's is not), you win Black Jack with a 3 to 2 pay off on your bet.
- If the total value of the computer dealer's cards goes over 21, you win.

Your game unit will shut off automatically after three minutes of non-use. However, it will "remember" where you left off in the game. Press any button for play to resume. All of the icons will remain in the last playing location and your score will be retained.
